

Make it Work

A toolkit for developing your creative practice

17 - 21 August 2020

Monday

10 - 11am

Introduction to Outside In

Find out more through Outside In staff and artist Ambassadors about their artist development, exhibitions and training.

12 – 12.30pm

Podcast lunch with Jhinuk Sarkar, Turf Projects

A series of lunchtime podcasts for which artists and curators discuss how they've developed their creative communities with Ben Roberts Artistic Director at Brighton CCA.

Tuesday

12 – 12.30pm

Podcast lunch with Kerry Campbell, Mansions of the Future

A series of lunchtime podcasts for which artists and curators discuss how they've developed their creative communities with Ben Roberts Artistic Director at Brighton CCA.

1 - 3pm

Workshop: Make it Work

How to devise a creative workshop using your practice led by artist duo Leap then Look

3 - 5pm

Workshop: Inclusivity in Practice

A creative session on how to practice accessibility when producing work and devising events in both the gallery and online.

All events are free to attend
Book online via brightoncca.art/

Make it Work

A tool kit for developing your creative practice

17 - 21 August 2020

Wednesday

10.30am - 12pm Studio Visit with Flo Brooks

Join artist Flo Brooks online to find out about his work ahead of his upcoming exhibition at Brighton CCA.

12 - 12.30pm Podcast lunch with Languid Hands

A series of lunchtime podcasts for which artists and curators discuss how they've developed their creative communities with Ben Roberts Artistic Director at Brighton CCA.

Thursday

10am - 12pm Workshop: Get Paid!

How to sell your time and skills as an artist led by curator Louise Shelley

12 - 12.30pm Podcast lunch with Eduardo Padilha, Balin House Projects

A series of lunchtime podcasts for which artists and curators discuss how they've developed their creative communities with Ben Roberts Artistic Director at Brighton CCA.

2 - 3.30pm Workshop: Find your voice

Rising Arts Agency and recent Graduates from University of Brighton collaborate to bring you this session on how to talk about your practice.

All events are free to attend
Book online via brightoncca.art

Make it Work

A tool kit for developing your creative practice

17 - 21 August 2020

Friday

10.30am - 12pm Studio Visit with Holly Graham

Join artist Holly Graham to hear about the exploration of individual and collective memory within her practice.

12 - 12.30pm Podcast lunch with Esther Collins, Towner Gallery

A series of lunchtime podcasts for which artists and curators discuss how they've developed their creative communities. Polly Wright, Programme Producer Brighton CCA will be in conversation for this edition.

1 - 1.30pm Workshop: How to write your CV

This practical session from University of Brighton Career Services is a how to on becoming a self-employed creative.

2 - 3.30pm Outside In: Share Art

Hear five Outside In artists share their art work in an informal and friendly environment.

All events are free to attend
Book online via brightoncca.art